

American Cancer Society
Relay For Life Plano 2008
Proudly Announces
Linda Armstrong Kelly, Honorary Chairperson

Plano, TX, February 26, 2008 – The American Cancer Society is proud to announce Linda Armstrong Kelly as the Honorary Chairperson for the 2008 Relay For Life Plano.

Linda Armstrong Kelly, motivational speaker and mother of cycling legend, Lance Armstrong, is an active member of the Plano community and is considered by her son to be the unsung hero behind his spectacular cycling victories and in his triumph over cancer.

Relay For Life Plano 2008 is scheduled for April 25 – 26 at Alcatel-Lucent. This year's theme is Celebrate. Remember. Fight back.

Relay For Life is a unique fundraising event that allows participants from all walks of life – including cancer survivors, medical support staff, corporations, civic organizations, churches and community volunteers – to join together to fight cancer. The event includes entertainment and children's activities. Relay For Life reminds us that progress continues to be made in the fight against cancer and that everyone who participates is making a difference.

Cancer survivors are also invited to attend our honorary dinner on relay night. Information about forming a team or becoming involved in Relay For Life is available from the American Cancer Society at 1-800-ACS-2345 or visit www.planorfl.org.

The American Cancer Society is the nationwide, community-based, voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives and diminishing suffering from cancer through research, education, advocacy and service.
